

A Spiritual/Cultural gathering at the spiritual land base of the Puu Honua

PUU HONUA O HONAUNAU

HONAUNAU, KONA, HAWAII

April 18-20, 2008

The Temple of Lono humbly invites you to return to your spiritual land base of the Puu Honua. Here on Hawaii Island is Puu Honua O Honaunau.

We gather to help ourselves reconnect to the spiritual foundation of the Hawaiian People, to our common ancestral roots, and the Kuleana of Malama Aina, Malama Ke Kai, Malama Ko Kino.

We have extended this invitation to a very diverse cross section of our community. We welcome Spiritual/Cultural Practitioners, Educators and or any other organization, group or individual to share their information or point of view they feel may contribute and enhance our discussions as a whole.

We encourage you to come and listen with an open mind, see each other as family, as Ohana, and to participate in all discussions. Whether we agree or disagree with the presentation, we must afford each other the opportunity to be heard.

To accommodate those who have particular information (Pamphlets, Flyers, etc.) regarding their groups political, cultural and civic identities, etc. we will not only want you to make a presentation but we will also be setting up an area open for several hours a day for their distribution.

So bring your family, your Mana'o, your Aloha. Don't forget your camping gear, we'll be there for three days and two nights. Special accommodations have been made for Kupuna and others that may not be comfortable at the beach up the hill at Hale Na Opi'o.

The Temple of Lono is your host and facilitator so please keep in mind that we are on sacred grounds. Come and go in peace.
