

THE PLACE OF HAWAI‘I IN AMERICAN STUDIES II

Kamakakūokalani Center for Hawaiian Studies / Halau o Haumea /
University of Hawaii at Mānoa / 2645 Dole Street / Honolulu, HI 96822

THURSDAY

3.11.10

3:00 - 3:30 pm

Opening Protocol

Keali‘i‘olu‘olu Gora (chant) / Vernadette Gonzalez (welcome)

3:30 - 5:00 pm

Roundtable 1 / “Occupied Hawai‘i: Issues of Nationhood and Colonialism”

Jonathan Kamakawiwo‘ole Osorio / Ty Kāwika Tengan / ‘Ilima Long Seto

5:00 - 6:00 pm

Reception

Jonathan Kamakawiwo‘ole Osorio (music)

6:00 - 7:30 pm

Keynote Address / “A Sorry State: Hawaiian Nationalism and the Politics of Imperialist Resentment”

J. Kēhaulani Kauanui

FRIDAY

3.12.10

9:00 - 10:30 am

Roundtable 2 / “Red Shirts: Anti-colonialism, Queer Politics, and HB 444”

Jon Goldberg-Hiller / Caroline Sinavaiana / V. Kalei Kanuha / Blake Oshiro

10:45 am - 12:15 pm

Roundtable 3 / “Sustainability and the Environment”

Alani Apio / Jeff Mikulina / Kapua Sproat

1:30 - 3:00 pm

Roundtable 4 / “Education and the Occupied Nation/Plantation State”

Noelani Goodyear-Ka‘ōpua / April A. H. Drexel / Patricia Halagao / Kūhiō Vogeler

3:00 - 3:30 pm

Coffee Break

3:30 - 5:00 pm

Roundtable 5 / “Where do Hawaiian Studies and American Studies Meet?”

A moderated discussion that will assess the symposium’s goals of bringing into dialogue the paradigms and politics of American Studies and Hawaiian Studies.

SPONSORS

Hawai‘i American Studies Association Chapter / Hawai‘inuiākea School of Hawaiian Knowledge /
Center for Asia-Pacific Exchange / UHM Diversity and Equity Initiative / Ka Huli Ao Center for Excellence in Native Hawaiian Law /
UHM American Studies Department / College of Arts and Humanities

SUPPORTERS

UHM English Department / UHM Women’s Studies Department / LCC American Studies / LCC Political Science