

Hawaii Aloha Aina

“The Voice of the People...is the Voice of God” (Queen Lili`uokalani)

Hawaii Aloha Aina is a gathering of people whose mission is:

- To peaceably assemble and aid in the restoration of peace in the Hawaiian Islands;
- To promote an inclusive process for raising an awareness among the people of the Hawaiian Islands, as well as people of all nations, interested in the state of affairs existing in the Hawaiian Islands prior to and since January 17, 1893;
- To provide clarity regarding Queen Liliuokalani's Protest (Wartime Convention) and its purpose;
- To explain how the establishment of the Queen's Protest (Wartime Convention) benefits us today;
- To support the restoration of the Hawaiian government;
- To support the withdrawal of United States' forces unlawfully occupying the Hawaiian Islands;
- To support ending the prevailing state of war; and
- To support concluding a treaty of peace.
